CATHOLIC CHURCH GENERAL.

Rev. Ludwig H[illegible], Ac. Consecrated as Coadjutor Bishop of [illegible].

Sermons by Bishop Spalding and Abbot Wimmer.

Appointment of St. Joseph's Church—Institutes of the Passion.

One of the most interesting and important ceremonies of a religious character that have occurred in the Catholic Church of late years occurred yesterday morning at the Church of St. Joseph, on the corner of Wabash-av. and Harrison-st., when the Rev. Ludwig H. Rad, D.D., a native of Germany, was consecrated Bishop of Belleville, Ill., and Coadjutor Bishop to the Right Rev. Henry D. Juncker, D.D., Bishop of the same diocese. The ceremony was performed by the Most Rev. Archbishop Feehan, assisted by the Rev. Father Spalding, of Peoria, and the Rev. Father Wimmer, Abbot of St. Vincent's Abbey, Pennsylvania. The church was filled to its utmost capacity by a large congregation, among whom were many clergymen from different parts of the country, and the sanctuary was filled with priests, who participated in the ceremonies. The Rev. Father Rad was born in Germany, and is now about 40 years of age. He was educated for the priesthood in the Seminary of St. Francis de Sales, Milwaukee, and was ordained by Archbishop Heiss, of that city, in 1867. He was then appointed assistant pastor of St. Peter's Church, Belleville, Ill., and remained in that position until 1870, when he was appointed pastor of the same church, which position he held until his consecration yesterday. He is a man of fine appearance, and is said to be a pulpit orator of great power. He is a member of the Institutes of the Passion, a religious order established in Europe about 30 years ago, and which has a number of houses in this country. The members of the order are engaged in missionary work, and are known as Passionists. The ceremonies attending the consecration of Bishop Rad were very impressive, and were of a most interesting character. The Archbishop was assisted by the Rev. Father Spalding, of Peoria, and the Rev. Father Wimmer, Abbot of St. Vincent's Abbey, Pennsylvania. The ceremony of the consecration of a Bishop, which has only been witnessed, we are told, by a few persons in this city, is a most solemn and impressive one. It is performed by the Archbishop, assisted by two attending Bishops or priests, who act as witnesses. The Archbishop, after the reading of the Epistle and Gospel, anoints the head and hands, after which he, with the assistants, lays his hands upon the head of the Bishop elect, repeating the customary prayer. This ceremony is repeated by the assistants, after which the newly consecrated Bishop withdraws to the sacristy, where he puts on the robes of his office. Being thus equipped, the prelate is again brought into the church with very much pomp and ceremony, and is then presented with the pastoral staff, the ring, the mitre, and the book of the Gospels, which are the insignia of his office. The ceremony of consecration is then complete, and the Bishop elect is duly installed in his office. The ceremony yesterday was performed in the presence of a large congregation, and was witnessed by many persons who were not members of the Catholic Church. The music rendered by the choir was very fine, and added much to the impressiveness of the occasion. The Rev. Father Rad will remain in this city for a few days, and will then return to his home in Belleville, Ill., where he will enter upon the duties of his office. The Rev. Father Spalding, of Peoria, who preached the sermon yesterday morning, is a man of fine appearance, and is said to be a pulpit orator of great power. DEATH GREATER.

A Western Drinker Crosses Out and is Saved by a Stomach Pump.

An Old Hat Attempts to Drown Himself and is Prevented by an Officer.

Mr. Lemuy resided in No. 42 Sycamore-court, and it was a member of Sandwich Post. Yet the day came that of Mr. Lemuy, to make himself dead, and he went to the lake-shore for that purpose. Arrived there, he undertook to release his soul from the body by swallowing a large dose of Carbolic Acid. This accomplished, he walked out into the water and arrived near the pier-head. Here he was observed by Officer Hall, who, suspecting that the man was about to commit suicide, followed him out. Lemuy, on seeing the officer approaching, threw his hat at him, which struck against the buttons of his coat. Officer Hall, however, succeeded in capturing Lemuy, and, with the assistance of a few citizens, brought him to the shore. Lemuy was then taken to the Harrison-st. Police Station, where he was locked up to await the action of the Coroner. Lemuy is a native of Germany, and is about 40 years of age. He has been in this country for many years, and has been employed as a cigar-maker. He has been in the habit of drinking to excess for some time past, and it is supposed that he was laboring under the influence of liquor when he committed the rash act. He is married, and has a family residing in this city. He is a member of Sandwich Post.
